Only the published result of examinations be considered for calculating the academic arrear for deciding the eligibility of a candidate. The maximum age limit to legitimately contest an election must be 25 years. The candidate shall attain not less than 75 % attendance and no disciplinary action by university/ College be taken against him / her. Campaigning in the form of displaying posters inside the campus is strictly restricted.

For deciding the number of chances for contesting the election, the posts of Chairman, Vice-chairman and Gen. Secretary only shall be considered as office bearers.

For deciding the eligibility of a candidate as per clause 6.5.7 of the recommendations of the J.M.Lyngdoh committee, it is clarified that a candidate becomes ineligible to contest the election only if he is convicted of any criminal offence or misdemeanour, that is, if a particular case is under trial, the same alone would not make the candidate ineligible. If he/she is otherwise eligible as far as the disciplinary action by the University authorities is concerned, the same principle is to be followed. That is, a candidate can be considered ineligible, only after the passing of the order imposing such disciplinary action.

All the staff and students are requested to follow COVID - 19 protocols and maintain social distancing for well conduct of student council election 2023-24. The Identity Cards shall be produced on the above occasions while turning up for voting.
