INTRODUCTION

The potential for employment in the hospitality sector is stupendous. Despite the crippling effect of the Covid-19 pandemic, the industry provided 87.5 million jobs and accounted for 12.75% of the total jobs created in the country in 2019. With an ever-increasing millennial population, higher disposable incomes and more affordable options for both travel and accommodation, tourism is the sector to watch for as far as employment potential is concerned. To help the youth of today take full advantage of this opportunity, Viswajyothi College of Engineering and Technology Vazhakulam has launched the programme Bachelor in Hotel Management and Catering Technology (BHMCT).

BHMCT PROGRAMME

VJCET has secured approval from AICTE for conducting a four-year degree programme in Hotel Management and Catering Technology. The programme will follow the syllabus prescribed by APJ Abdul Kalam Technical University (KTU) to which the institution is affiliated. The approved intake capacity is of 60 students per batch.
